CAREER AND LIFE
— MASTERY™ —

CAREER MASTERMIND.ORG

If you don't design your life—someone else will design it for you. In my fifteen years of working in higher education, this is the fundamental career and life lesson that I have learned. Your journey is a personal journey. It's a journey of perspective. And most importantly, it's a journey of purpose.

Have you ever thought you wouldn't be where you are today? Maybe you imagined yourself and your life in a completely different way, or in some other place?

Most of us already know what we don't want. Some of us know what we want. If you know where you are, and you know where you want to go, then the next thing you need to know is the "why"—and that vision and purpose comes from the heart. The only thing left after is—how do you get there?

In order to design your life, you must design your career. Career and life vision go hand-in-hand. One cannot live without the other. Your vision is not tunnel vision, it's a panoramic view. Opportunities hide in blind spots. They hide outside of your comfort zone.

MasterMind Modules

These in-depth mastermind groups incorporate the mindset that you should undertake to succeed in both your career and life vision. This is likely one of the most essential first steps you need to take in order to build a positive mindset and the right perspective. Without a combined career and life vision, you will struggle to align your career and purpose. Because the saying goes, "80% of success is your psychology, whereas solely 20% are the mechanics."

In these sessions, I will share novel methods to making a compelling career and life strategy that will set you up for long-term success and meaningful work. Most people don't have a career bucket list or life plan and thus struggle being distracted and unmotivated. Creating an in-depth plan that's motivating for you is what's going to make sure you deliver in the long run.
